STIPULATION OF FACTS APPLICABLE TO SEPTEMBER 30, 1999
INDICTMENT FILED AGAINST JONATHAN H. ADLER

The State of Hawaii, by and through its undersigned counsel, and the undersigned Defendant, JONATHAN H. ADLER, hereby stipulate to and agree that the following facts have been adduced at the trial of said Defendant and that the parties are prepared to proceed with a jury-waived trial concerning the question of law regarding the balancing of the burden upon Defendant's religious practices and the State's compelling interest in prohibiting Defendant from cultivating and consuming Cannabis.

By signing below, the parties agree that the following facts were shown at trial by the testimony and evidence presented:

1. On or about August 26, 1998, in the County and State of Hawaii, Defendant knowingly had in his possession and was cultivating 89 cannabis plants, seven of which were seedlings;
2. Defendant also knowingly possessed 4 pipes used for smoking cannabis, and 34 various plastic pots and bags to grow the cannabis;
3. Defendant is a Reverend in the Religion of Jesus Church;
4. The Religion of Jesus Church is a legitimate religion;
5. Defendant has received a license to perform marriage ceremonies from the State of Hawaii;
6. Defendant is sincere in his religious convictions concerning the use of cannabis;
7. Defendant sincerely believes that his religion mandates the sacramental use of cannabis;
8. The question of law as to whether the State of Hawaii has a compelling interest in prohibiting Defendant's use and cultivation of cannabis which outweighs Defendant's rights to freely exercise his religion under Article I, Section Four of the Hawaii State Constitution, shall be decided at a jury-waived trial before this Honorable Court.
