To whom it may concern,
I met Sherryanne St. Cyr in 1975. She was married to my friend Douglas St. Cyr, who was following the teachings of the Indian elders. All of us were following a spiritual path under the guidance of many elders in Alberta and in the United States, particularly Raymond Harris of the Arapaho Nation of Wyoming, who would come to Alberta every year to guide us. I personally was under Raymond's apprenticeship for 15 years and with his support I guided many people through the spiritual fasts, spiritual sweat lodge ceremonies and healing ceremonies.

Sherryanne and Douglas followed this spiritual journey under my guidance, starting with sweat lodge and healing ceremonies as often as two or three times a week. They were involved in every aspect of Raymond's teachings. Sherryanne was very committed to her spiritual development and in the early 1980's, I conducted a fast which she participated in, which was a "vision quest", without food or water. Through that experience it strengthened her resolve to conduct her life with peace, love and devotion to everyone around her. My experience with her has shown that anything she does is out of kindness, generosity, love and caring. I found her to be a very beautiful soul.

Sincerely,

Douglas Cardinal O.C., Ph.D. (h.c.)
